Shahrul.

“A great dining experience is more than the food itself. It’s also about the people at the front of house who are the souls of hospitality that make you feel that much more special.”

CHARISMA & PERSONALITY

With over two decades worth of experience and technical skills, Shahrul leads Shook!'s service team to bring its vision to life everyday in the dining room. A true natural in the hospitality industry, Shahrul's charisma never fails to draw guests to him, and it is not hard to see why – with an affable personality, he stands out amongst the rest, whether it is interacting with guests, or assuming the role as a trainer, mentor and confidante to his fellow colleagues.

Warm and approachable, Shahrul has an innate ability to anticipate the needs of guests, be it recommendations to suit a discerning palate or effortlessly remembering your favourite dish; and is thus well-loved throughout the years.
